

Contents

Foreword by Barry Hopewell

Introduction

Synopsis of the Study

About the Author

Presentation, Explanations, and Glossary

1. The Genesis of Huber Astrology

1.1 Germany: 1946-52

1.2 Switzerland: 1947-57

1.3 Working with Assagioli in Italy: 1958-62

1.4 The Spiritual in Art

1.5 Founding of the Huber Schools: 1964-90

1.6 How does Astrological Psychology differ from Psychological Astrology?

2. Defining Western Esotericism

2.1 Esotericism as a Form of Thought

2.2 Identities and Discourse

2.3 Seeker and Scholar

2.4 Using Symbolism and Imagination

3. Astrology and Esotericism: From Ancient Mesopotamia to 20th Century Europe

3.1 Esotericism as the Third Pillar of Western Culture

3.2 Mesopotamian Cosmology

3.3 Greek Philosophers and a Confluence of Cultures in Alexandria

3.4 Astrology and Kabbalah in Medieval Provence and Northern Spain

3.5 The Book of Life in Renaissance Italy

3.6 Theosophy, New Age, and the Seven Rays

4. Moon Node Astrology, Karma, and the Three Charts

- 4.1 The Moon Node Chart: A Mirror of the Past
- 4.2 The House Chart: Our Interface with the Environment
- 4.3 The Three Charts of Professor Alan Deyermond FBA
- 4.4 Saturn and Uranus in the Three Charts of the Author
- 4.5 Family Inheritance
- 4.6 Concluding Remarks

5. Chaomic, Transpersonal, and Huber Astrology in the 21st Century

- 5.1 The Competing Worldviews of Astrology and Science
- 5.2 The Postmodern Paradigm of Science
- 5.3 Sensitive-Intuitive Seeing
- 5.4 The Stoic Revival
- 5.5 Chaos, Chaosmos, and Astrological Research
- 5.6 Transpersonal and Astrological Psychology

Bibliography

Index of Names and Dates

Subject Index